The Zev Henkin Award

The Henkin prize is awarded to an outstanding student in the English Department.

Gil Zev Henkin was born in 1941 in Reading, Pennsylvania. He received his B.A. degree from Columbia University, and his PhD from Brandeis University, and served as a lecturer in the English Department during the 1964-65 academic year. He passed away in 1967.

Recipients of the Henkin Prize:

2016: Gilad Bronshtein

2014: Tamar Gerstenhaber

2010: Maya Marlob

2009: Inbar Kaminsky
2007: Viacheslav Bart
2005: Tal Rayman
2004: Alexandra Yosov