

Post-Doctoral Fellows since 2012

(in inverse chronological order)

2014-15:

Zvi Yavetz Fellows:

Dr. Lucy Nicholas (PhD 2014, Durham University),
“New Perspectives: The Translated Latin Works of Joahnnes Sturm and Role in the Religious Reformation.”

Dr. Raz Segal (PhD 2013, Clark University),
“Making Hungary Greater New Perspectives on World War II and the Holocaust.”

Thomas Arthur Arnold Fellows:

Dr. Peiying Lin (PhD 2012, University Of London),
“Archeology of Chinese Chan Buddhism: A Cross-Cultural Perspective in Medieval East Asia.”

Dr. Jonathan Rubin (PhD 2012, Hebrew University),
“Intellectual Activity in the Latin East and its Reception in the West.”

2013-14:

Thomas Arthur Arnold Fellows:

Dr. Barbara Gribling (PhD 2012, University of York),
“Consuming The Middle Ages: How the 'Age of Chivalry' was Sold to British Children, 1880-1938.”

Dr. Noam Maggor (PhD 2010, Harvard University),
“Brahmin Capitalism: Gentlemanly Bankers, Urban Populists, and the Political Origins of the Modern American Economy.”

2012-13:

Thomas Arthur Arnold Fellows:

Dr. Oded Rabinovitch (PhD 2011, Brown University),
“Anatomy of a Family of Letters: The Perraults, 1640-1705.”

Dr. Michal Shapira (PhD 2008, Rutgers University),
“The Domestic, Transnational, and Imperial Legacies of WW-2 in Britain and Beyond”