KANTIAN THEMES IN ANALYTIC PHILOSOPHY

Sunday, December 16, 2012 at Tel Aviv University, Gilman 496 (Drachlis Hall)

09:30 - 10:00 Greetings: Menachem Lorberbaum (Head of the School of Philosophy, Tel Aviv University)
10:00 - 10:50 Pini Ifargan (Bar-Ilan University): The Transition from Kant to Hegel as a Theme in the Analytical Discourse on German Idealism
10:50 - 11:40 Michael Rebuch (Hebrew University of Jerusalem): Kant’s Philosophy and the Heidegger-Carnap Controversy

12:00 - 12:50 Zoe Gutzeit (Ben-Gurion University): Kantian Themes in the Controversy over Personal Identity

14:00 - 14:50 Jean-Philippe Narboux (University of Bordeaux 3): Negation and Logical Space
14:50 - 15:40 Joseph Almog (UCLA): Universalist Philosophical Cosmology - World, God, Men - Before the Fall and After

16:00 - 16:50 Paul Franks (Yale): From Indeterminacy to Idealism
16:50 - 17:40 David Macarthur (University of Sydney): Skepticism and Responsibility

Monday, December 17, 2012 at Ben-Gurion University, Hall A Bldg. 26

10:00 - 10:50 Robert Hanna (University of Colorado, Boulder): Kant, the Benacerraf Dilemmas and Transcendental Idealism
10:50 - 11:40 Carl Posy (Hebrew University of Jerusalem): Kant on the Unity of the Proposition

12:00 - 12:50 Paul Redding (University of Sydney): Kant’s Transcendental Reflection and Russell’s Transformatif Analysis as Forms of Philosophical Critique

14:00 - 14:50 Daniel Sutherland (University of Illinois at Chicago): Kant on the Content of Arithmetical Concepts
14:50 - 15:40 Ofra Rechter (Tel Aviv University): On Mathematical Intuition in Kant

16:00 - 16:50 Arata Hamaoki (Auburn University): Kant on the Priority of Judgment
16:50 - 17:40 Sebastian Rüell (University of Basel): The Single Act of Combining

Tuesday, December 18, 2012 at Tel Aviv University, Gilman 496 (Drachlis Hall)

09:30 - 10:20 Menachem Fisch (Tel Aviv University): Friedman and Beyond: Neo-Kantian Philosophy of Science for our Times and its (Neo-) Hegelian Correlative
10:20 - 11:10 Yakir Lavee (Ben-Gurion University): Kant, Analytic Philosophy and the “Identity of Identity and Nonidentity”

11:30 - 12:20 Keren Gorodeisky (Auburn University/National Humanities Center): A Matter of Form: Kant on the Judgment of Beauty
12:20 - 13:10 Yaron Sanderowicz (Tel Aviv University): ‘I Think’ as Consciousness of Myself… that I am

14:30 - 15:20 Arnon Cahan (Haifa University): The Aspectuality of Perception and the Kantian Dilemma
15:20 - 16:10 Ido Geiger (Ben-Gurion University): Kant and McDowell on the Fundamental Intentionality of Experience

16:30 - 17:20 James Conant (University of Chicago): Kant’s Critique of the Layer-Cake Conception of Human Mindedness