

The Israeli Research Forum for the Study of Mandatory Palestine explores the historical, political, social and cultural aspects of Jewish and Arab life under the British Mandate, along with specific issues regarding the method of “mandate” as a tool of a colonial power in its territories. The forum functions in collaboration with the Herzl Institute for the Study and Teaching of Zionism at the University of Haifa. Members of the forum include both doctoral and post-doctoral students and leading Israeli scholars in this field.

Forum chair: Professor Motti Golani. Forum coordinator: Hagit Kirk.
